

What kind of funding opportunities are available after successful registration?

Travel Costs

You can receive a one-off payment to cover the costs of travelling to a job interview in another EU-member state.

Recognition of Qualifications

You can receive financial support towards the costs of official recognition of professional qualifications.

Relocation Costs

You can receive a one-off payment for relocation costs after the acceptance of a job offer in Germany.

Subsistence Allowance

Trainees and apprentices can receive a special allowance in certain cases for subsistence costs.

Language Course in Country of Origin

You can receive financial assistance for a preparatory language course in your country of origin.

Language Course in Germany

In certain cases you can receive financial support for an employment-related language course in Germany.