

Mustafa and his IPS-Advisor are discussing which funding opportunities may be available for him:

M: Can I receive support for my journey to a job interview from France to Germany?

IPS: If you have received an offer from a language school and the German course hasn't started yet, then you can apply for financial assistance.

M: I'd like to improve my language skills before I move to Germany. What opportunities are there in France?

M: Can I improve my language skills after my arrival in Germany?

IPS: If you are invited to a job interview, you can apply for financial assistance before your journey starts.

M: I need to prove that my apprenticeship qualification is recognised in Germany. Can you help me with this?

IPS: In certain cases you can apply for an employment-related language course in Germany, as long as the course and your employment have not started by the time the course begins.

M: Moving to Germany will be expensive. Can I apply for assistance?

IPS: If you can show that you have applied for official recognition of professional qualifications, then you can apply for financial support.

IPS: If you have an employment contract or a formal offer of acceptance and you have not yet moved to Germany, then you can apply for financial support.

Assessment of Application for Financial Support

